NRHyA Awards Scholarships To Top Youth

The National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) Varsity Reining Club awarded 13 scholarships in 2014, totaling more than $5,000. The Varsity Reining Club encourages Reining youth to be more active in their communities, and rewards participants for their scholastic accomplishments.

Varsity Youth of the Year Award Recipients

TOP VARSITY YOUTH OF THE YEAR: Megan D'Andrea, 17, from Fowler, OH 9,113 total points. D'Andrea's total points included submissions in the community service category, but also included participation in photography and fundraising. When not giving back to her community, D'Andrea of course enjoys spending time with her horses.

SECOND:

Holly Lansidel, 17, from McKenna, WA with 5,005 total points.

THIRD

Amy Stoney, 18, from McClave, CO with 3,515 total points.

FOURTH:

Lydia Wilson, 17, from Smithfield, VA with 3,445 total points.

FIFTH

Samantha Land, 15, from Boerne, TX with 1,505 total points.

SIXTH

Blair McFarlin, 17, from Franklin, TN with 1,350 total points.

SEVENTH

Shaelyn Vering, 17, from Scribner, NE with 1,325 total points.

FIGHTH

Jordan Scott, 16, from Bluff City, TN with 1,230 total points.

Junior Varsity Youth of the Year Award Recipient

TOP JUNIOR VARSITY YOUTH OF THE YEAR: Grace Wilson, 14, from Smithfield, VA 2,455 total points. Wilson's points include the time spent volunteering with several different groups in her area, one of which includes an equine rescue group.

SECOND:

Reagan Stephens, 14, from Weatherford, OK with 2,070 total points.

THIRD:

Taylor Masson, 14, from Davie, FL with 1,238 total points.

FOURTH:

Ally Jones, 13, from Franklin, KY with 1,046 total points.

FIFTH

Robin Foster, 9, from Strawberry Plains, TN with 375 total points. ◆

Point values in the Varsity Reining Club are awarded based on participation in four main categories: philanthropy; creativity; publicity; and academics. Within these primary areas of focus, participants can record activity in photography, community service, report back, and fundraising. The Varsity Reining Club is free for NRHyA members, and serves as an innovative tool to help reining youth become more involved at a local level while developing valuable life skills.
